Fifteen year old Mia wants a new laptop. She puts her old one up for sale on the net. A foreign woman buys it and asks her to send it to Iran.

What Mia doesn't know is that the woman is fictional and that the real buyer has a very specific agenda. One that will change Mia's life forever. "It's 02.53 and the interrogation of Mia Langholm Osman begins. Present is Superintendent Inge Brandt and representative of Child Services, Grethe Larsen." She paused and looked at me. "Mia, you have been arrested and charged under Penal Code section 114." I shook my head in confusion. What was she talking about? Grethe Larsen leaned over and placed her hand on my arm. "Mia, do you understand what that means?" I just stared at her. "It means that the Police have reason to suspect you of involvement in terrorism!"

Your Future Depends on It.

Reboot Your Life. Reboot Your Life. Here's the story of how the key combination became famous in the first place. Control-Alt-Delete (often abbreviated to Ctrl+Alt+Del, also known as the 'three-finger salute' or 'Security Keys') is a computer keyboard command on IBM PC compatible. You receive the error 'NTLDR is missing' after switching on your computer or after restarting Windows XP.
